To Charles Marmor,

A sub-post office in Columbus, Ohio, had not forwarded my mail from the latest office action from the USPTO. It had been sitting in the box (mine) for three weeks. It was another 8 days before I got it.

I have a civil dispute with the City of Columbus. I had anticipated that they would use all means necessary to ~~hinder~~ my progress. The patent I am on, would be detrimental to their case, if I succeed, and they know this.

I could not imagine how they could suppose a delay on their end could ~~avert~~ my patent progress.

I hadn't thought about a combined effort, ~~one~~ agency working with another. The new mailing address and the confusion it has caused, prompted me to come up with this answer; to submit another package, identical to the package^s sent July 2nd.

I will inquire of the ~~new~~ address (if necessary) with the F.B.I., concerning intellectual property.

Appn # 10/021/656 (over) Gary Johnson

I have made copies of this letter front and back.

The certificate of mailing is not included in this package. I will submit one in the next duplicate package (if necessary)

We don't intend to be caught off guard again. I feel that my application is subject to being forced into abandonment.
Possibly to allow infringement by others. I don't believe these delays are a coincidence. I hope I am wrong.

But I know personally of the adversity of some people against others.

I was convicted of criminal trespassing
for going to the public libraries in Columbus, Ohio, without even being charge with any prior pending charge. (without due process of Law).
Have a good day, Thank you,
Barry
